The Atomic Bombed Tram No.653: A History of That Day

—A peace tour linking the past to the future—

Senda Depot

Trams available for viewing will vary depending on the conditions at the depot on the day of the tour.

Take a chartered ride aboard No. 653, which was running through town on that day. We'll guide you through the story of the A-bombed tram, which resumed service through the efforts of citizens.

Special entry to Hiroshima Electric Railway's Senda depot. You can get on and photograph the A-bombed tram. On the tram, your guide will explain the history of the A-bomb surviving tram and red brick building.
